

Tuesday's Tip

information provided by Adriance Memorial Library to make your life a little bit easier

TutorBowl.com

September 1, 2015

If you are looking for a tutor, TutorBowl (<https://www.tutorbowl.com/>) may be able to help. The site lists over 75,000 tutors, available in person or online, for a variety of subjects.

View a list of
available subjects

View a list of
locations by State

You can further refine the search, for example, by hourly rate:

SEARCH FOR TUTORS

Subject

ZIP code Distance

Lesson Type
 In person
 Online

Subject 2

Subject 3

Hourly rate
 $10 to $200

Age
 18 to 100

Gender

Background check on file

Information about tutors includes a tutor profile and student feedback, for example:

★ 5.0 (18 Ratings)

👤 In-person lessons

✉ Replies in 11 hours

🛡 Background check passed as of 1/26/15

According to the site's FAQ:

Q. What kind of credentials do the tutors have?

A. Tutors come from a variety of backgrounds and include certified teachers, industry professionals, graduate and undergraduate students and more. All tutors have been reviewed by staff and passed subject proficiency exams in the subjects that they teach. Many tutors feature verified background checks and you may order an up-to-date background check on any tutor.

(Note: TutorBowl becomes <https://www.wyzant.com/> when you obtain results from a search.)